

display math

1

display math. The term display math refers to a math formula that T_EX places on a line by itself with extra space above and below so as to set it off from the surrounding text. A display math formula is enclosed by ‘$$’s. T_EX reads display math in display math mode.