

reference point

1

reference point. The reference point of a box is the point where the left edge of the box intersects its baseline. When T_EX is processing a horizontal or vertical list, it uses the reference points of the boxes in the list to line up those boxes horizontally or vertically (see “box”, p. ‘box’).