1

 $\number \langle number \rangle$

This command produces the representation of a number as a sequence of character tokens. The number can be either an explicit integer, a $\langle number \rangle$ parameter, or a $\langle number \rangle$ register.

Example:

\number 24 \quad \count13 = -10000 \number\count13 $produces: 24 \quad -10000$