1

`\pmod`

This command provides a notation for indicating a modulus in parentheses at the end of a formula.

Example:
```
$$x \equiv y+1 \pmod 2$$
```
produces:

$$x \equiv y + 1 \pmod 2$$