1

`\cleartabs`

This command clears all the tabs to the right of the current column. Its main use is in applications such as typesetting computer programs in which the tab positions change from line to line.